Hope all is well. My name is and I recently completed my graduate degree. I have to turn a final version of my non-published thesis this Friday, where a personal CV will be attached as well. Although my thesis is not related to any FBI casework or information, I cited the FBI as my employer in my CV. As a result, could you please review my CV for approval before I include it into my thesis? Thank you for your collaboration on such a short notice and I look forward to hearing from you.

Cordially,
